

THE DEADLINE HAS CHANGED.

STATE BAR FEES ARE DUE FEB. 1, 2007.

Your fees must be paid online (see below) or postmarked by Feb. 1, 2007. If you miss the deadline, a penalty will attach on Feb. 2 ($100 for active lawyers, $30 for inactive lawyers). If you have questions, call the Member Services Center at 1-888-800-3400.

PAY YOUR FEES ONLINE AT NO EXTRA COST.

Simply go to Member Services on the State Bar's Web site (calbar.ca.gov) and set up your individual My State Bar Profile. You will need the access code that appears on your fee statement. Once done, you can comply with MCLE requirements online, update your contact information online and even pay your fees online.

IF YOU ARE A MEMBER OF GROUP 1 (LAST NAMES A-G), YOU MUST SUBMIT YOUR MCLE DECLARATION BY FEB. 1.

File your MCLE compliance declaration online at no additional cost (see above). If you do not have Internet access, simply submit the enclosed green MCLE card. If you miss the deadline, a $75 penalty will attach on Feb. 2.

IF YOU ARE PLANNING TO GO INACTIVE, DO SO BY FEB. 1.

To be eligible for the inactive attorney fee ($125) for 2007, your completed change-in-status form must be postmarked by Feb. 1— or you will owe active attorney fees. For a copy of the form, simply go to calbar.ca.gov/inactive.

MEMBER SERVICES CENTER: 1-888-800-3400

NETWORK. MAKE A DIFFERENCE. STAY ON THE CUTTING EDGE.

When filling out your 2007 fee statement, you can:

 Join a State Bar section. Take advantage of this opportunity to exchange ideas and information in special areas of the law, from antitrust to workers' comp, and in special-interest areas such as law practice management and technology. Benefits include special discounts on CLE seminars. Enroll or renew your membership in any of 16 sections. For more information, go to calbar.ca.gov/sections.

 Support the Foundation of the State Bar of California. Help educate the public about legal rights and responsibilities. Improve access to the justice system. A donation of $50 (or more) will help provide scholarships for worthy law students committed to public interest careers; print and distribute popular public education guides; and support projects throughout the state to provide legal services and specialized assistance to Californians in need. For more information, go to fsbcal.org.

 Contribute to the independent Conference of Delegates of California Bar Associations. Each year, local and specialty bars from throughout the state sponsor more than 100 resolutions for debate on the conference floor. In the past four years, more than 25 of these resolutions have become state law. A donation of $25 or more will help maintain this vital function. For more information, go to cdcba.org.

 Make a donation to the California Supreme Court Historical Society. Help preserve and share California's rich judicial and legal history by joining the society. Member support provides crucial funding for a variety of projects, including the collection of the oral histories of California's Supreme Court justices. By donating $50 or more, you will receive various society publications and invitations to society programs and events. For more information, go to cschs.org.

Go to calbar.ca.gov/feestatement for more information. To learn more about your member benefits and services, call the Member Services Center at 1-888-800-3400.